

What Animals Tell Us

Rosie _021710 (while in rehab.)

I am beyond this now.

In what way?

I feel that things have been done, and they are good.

For whom, you or them?

We agreed to do this.

How do you feel?

I know I've been helped.

Do you know you will be going back to freedom soon?

I'm pretty edgy.

I know that they care.

Difficult. Tight spot.

It would be good to let me go again.

Do you see that all of this effort was to make you healthy again so you could continue?

I came in, didn't I?

I felt they were for me.

I never thought I'd get the chance.

You will be able to go soon.

Is it okay where you are?

I am on a mission. I told you that.

Can't stay much longer, though.

Why not?

My enjoyment lies ahead.

Enough of this.

I embark on my journey again.

Do you feel better having your coat come back?

Beats the other way. Yes.

Point made.

So do you know you'll be free again soon?

When?

Enough of this.

Soon. You get to go back.

I want the chance. I did nothing wrong.

Feel myself. Want to go.

Anything you want to say about this experience?

It's a pleasure to serve you.

Just gotta go now.

Full of energy.
