

What Animals Tell Us

Rosie _040910 (after release.)

Is now a good time?

I am somewhere, but it's none of your business.

Are you still in your body?

Yes, and I am very strong now.

Are you happy to be free again?

I am miles beyond happy. I am flying high again.

But you are still in your current body, yes?

Yes. It's no secret that I am alive.

How far did you run before you figured out that you were free again?

I couldn't believe it. I just ran and ran and ran.

So are you still in the same area?

No. I've moved away. I was afraid.

Afraid of what?

That you'd change your mind and come after me again.

Do you realize that the purpose was always to set you free again?

I guess so. I just wasn't sure.

Didn't want to get caught again.

Do you feel healthy again with your new coat?

Yes. And I feel good.

I can't remember why this all came about exactly. I only know I was destined for it.

I can't believe I'm out again.

Do you understand why you were there?

I understand there was a purpose in it. Yes.

What I don't know is why they cared so much.

Because some of us care that you live and be healthy again.

Did you know you were sick before you got trapped?

I was all wrong, yes. I behaved strangely because I did not know what to do.

I tried to go about my business but I knew I was damaged.

Okay.

So are you glad we decided to help?

I don't know, not sure.

Just glad it's over.

I can't say I know what to think.

What Animals Tell Us

Rosie, is this you?

Yes. A million times, it's me.

I was fine before but now I am even better.

I join the ranks again.

Are you with others?

My fellow inmates are around, yes.

Inmates?

We all deal with the difficulties of being here.

We justify our existence by just trying to survive. It's all the same.

We just try to get by.

Are you running with others?

Others are around, yes.

And you weren't with others before you were captured?

Before I was captured I was nothing.

No one waits for the sick one.

So did you know you were sick?

My time was coming to an end, yes.

I guess I was able to pull through and move on.

I'm here now, and ready to move on.

I feel good.

Do you have what you need?

I have everything I could ask for, yes.

Do you want anything else from us?

We all acquire something because of it. There is no shortage of effort here.

I am lonely in a way, but I am free now.

I want to move on.

So are you not in the area?

No. I am past it.

Would you know how to get back?

I got there once, didn't I?

Of course I know where it is.

Do you understand the purpose of your capture and captivity?

I was driven to succeed. I only wanted out.

I live for the freedom and I am now.

What Animals Tell Us

Do you want to say anything else about this experience?

The end justifies the means.

There are reasons for why we do what we do.

My compass is set in a new direction now. Do not disarm me from it.

I have got to move on and find my way. I have organized my thoughts to make this happen.

I own my world again and I am free.

Do you feel your mission to arrive here has been accomplished?

Yes. I have satisfied my goals. I care not to go back to that.

I am on my way.

Don't lose sight of the fact that I was there.

In my heart, I am forever free.

Let me be free.

The comforts were there, now I must be on my way.

I live now.

Will you find a mate soon?

This is not the task at the moment. Suffice to say that my freedom is.

Do you see that being there helped you get better?

There is something to be said for the time there, yes.

I jointly agree that it was good. Only for a time, thankfully.

It's my business what I do next.

So was being sick what caused you to stay in that area?

I knew I needed to be there.

Why?

Because I had no choice. I couldn't leave as I was.

Do you mean because you were sick?

My memory tells me there was something wrong with me.

I just languished and thought I would die there.

I still don't know why they tried. Who would care.

Anyway, it's done now and I am gone.

Have to go.

Do you need help with anything anymore?

There is a point where I can't go back. I am on my own way now and I must make it on my own devices.

My future depends on me.

Do not expect me to return.

Do you know you are welcome there any time? No one will hurt you if you go back there.

No thank you, no. My peace resides elsewhere.

I don't jointly submit to it again like I did before.

It must be this way and I must carry on.

Do not deceive me again.

I will not return.

Do you think we deceived you?

It's never safe to get that close. I see the point, but it is no longer.

Wish me on my way because I am not returning.

I must figure out on my own how to live.
